I talk about Yugioh!

@b.d.i 2024

By evan Wilson

Here's some Yugioh cards and archetypes that I think are cool!

Yugioh is the coolest card game ever! Magic the gathering and Pokémon can't compete!

The Yugioh franchise, originally created by Kazuki Takahashi, has been going strong for almost 3 decades and as such the card game has released over 12,000 unique cards and 100s of archetypes within those cards. They have also released many popular video games such as duel links, master duel and legacy of the duellist link evolution.

There so many cards to use and today I'm going to talk about some of the cards and archetypes I think are cool!

Borreload dragon

This card is an absolute powerhouse! When it attacks you can take control of the opponent's monster that you're attacking and have it destroyed at the end of the turn. The design is also really good.

The utopia archetype

Wielded by the main character of Yugioh zexal this archetype is mainly made up of Xyz monsters. The basic utopia being able to negate attacks and the rest being pretty hard-hitting attackers. This archetype also includes the Zexal weapon monsters. This archetype uses rank-up magic spells to be extremely effective.

Dragonmaids

These monsters wield the graveyard to summon powerful draconic armies. Their fusion spell is also not exclusive to the Dragonmaids so it's an incredibly useful card.

Number 107: galaxy eyes tachyon dragon

This monster was an absolute beast in the Yugioh Zexal anime and in my opinion is way cooler than galaxy eyes photon dragon. This monster is a very destructive powerhouse that can wreck a lot of different setups.

Superman vs Goku! Who would win?! (A decent debate)!

Who will win?!

This article will explain 5 categories (which are strength, speed, IQ, durability and fighting prowess) and the character who wins the most categories by the end wins!

Disclaimer: I am using mainline comics superman and anime Goku (dragonball - end of dragonball Z)

So, let's start with speed, superman has been shown to be able to keep up to the flash while running and sometimes even go faster while flying, the flash's speed is directly stated to be incalculable, but we can give a baseline of faster than light because he can easily time travel (the only actual way to time travel is to go faster than light) meaning that superman can at least run and fly faster than light if he wants. Goku has been shown to have a very high running and flying speed but, just about, not enough to match superman's speed. 1 point to superman.

Then there is strength, superman been shown to be able to break many huge structures with one punch. Goku has also been shown to have a similar level of strength. I'll give each half a point

Thirdly we have IQ, superman's IQ has been stated to roughly be around 64x the average human intelligence but for simplicity's sake I'll give him a 170 score whereas Goku's IQ is probably around 55-76. 1 point to superman.

Fourthly we have durability, superman has been shown to be incredibly durable but also is easily and quickly dispatched by a lot of characters such as Darkseid and Steppenwolf. Goku however has been shown to be able to take many punches by powerful characters such as Frieza and Broly and get back up relatively quickly. 1 point to Goku.

Finally, we have Fighting prowess (how well a character fights normally/without powers), Goku is trained in martial arts and is an incredibly well-trained fighter whereas superman mostly just fights with basic punches and kicks. 1 point to Goku.

Overall, I would say that the fight really depends on who wants to win, if Goku has the higher motive to win he probably would, if superman wanted to win, he most likely would. These characters are pretty much even in strength.

As of 02/02/2024 this great musical-comedy has finished airing its first season. With 8 episodes the show has a few issues regarding the breakneck pacing, but it still managed to be incredible. For instance, the music was pretty much perfect. Infact Here is the musical ranking now that the season is over.

16; out for love 4/10

15; welcome to heaven 4/10

14; more than anything (reprise) 5/10

13; happy day in hell 6/10
12; ready for this 7/10
11; finale 7.5/10
10; it starts with sorry 8/10
9; whatever it takes 8.5/10
8; respectless 8.7/10
7; loser, baby 8.9/10
6; poison 9/10
5; hell is forever 9.4/10
4; you didn't know 9.5/10
3; stayed gone 10/10
2; hell's greatest dad 10/10
1; more than anything 10/10

The series has great characters for instance Alastor constantly displays how powerful he is and especially displays his role in episode 5 where he turns into his full demon form and devours a bunch of actual loan sharks.

The villains are pretty much perfect, Adam is the main villain played by Alex Brightman and he is the perfect villain for the series. Vox is honestly my favourite character because he just looks cool and is the perfect antithesis to Alastor, expertly voiced by Christian Borle. Valentino is the most well written character in the entire show, he's a great example of how to right a straight up hateable antagonist.

Now here's my episode ranking

8 ep7 hello Rosie 7/10

7 ep1 overture 7.5/10

6 ep6 welcome to heaven 8.5/10

5 ep8 the show must go on 8.7/10

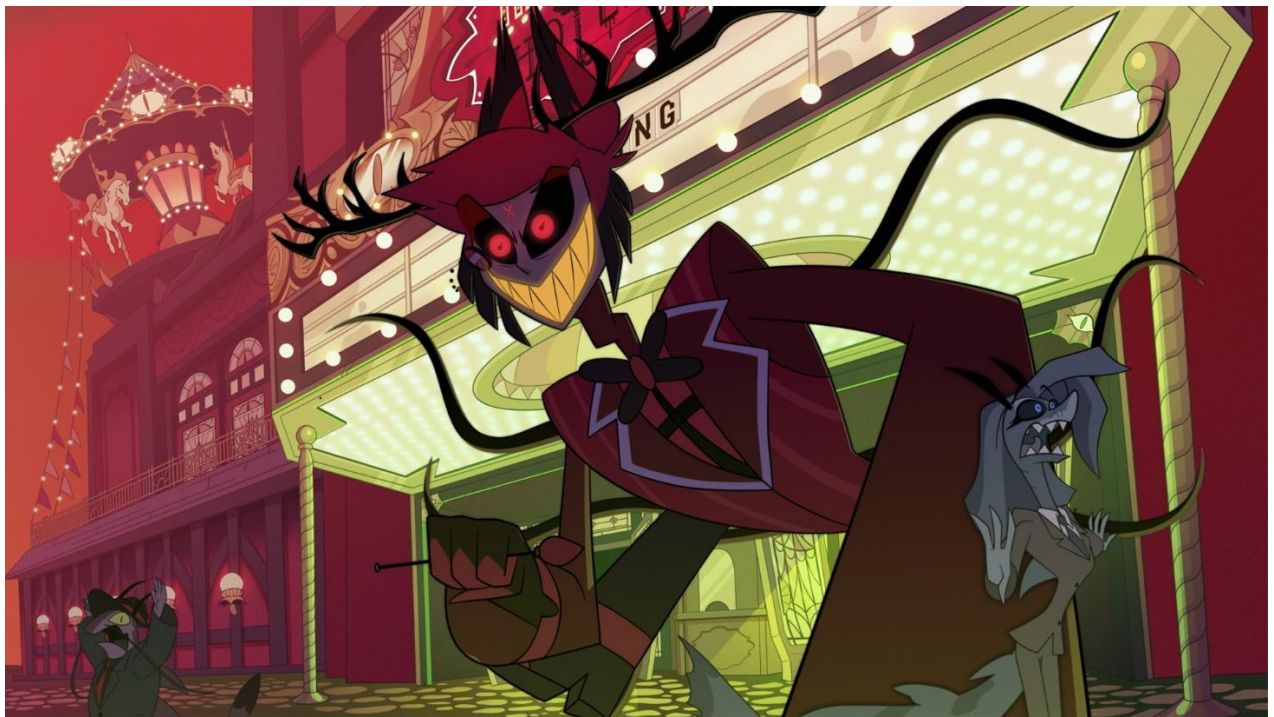

4 ep3 scrambled eggs 9/10

3 ep4 masquerade 9.1/10

2 ep2 radio killed the video star 9.5/10

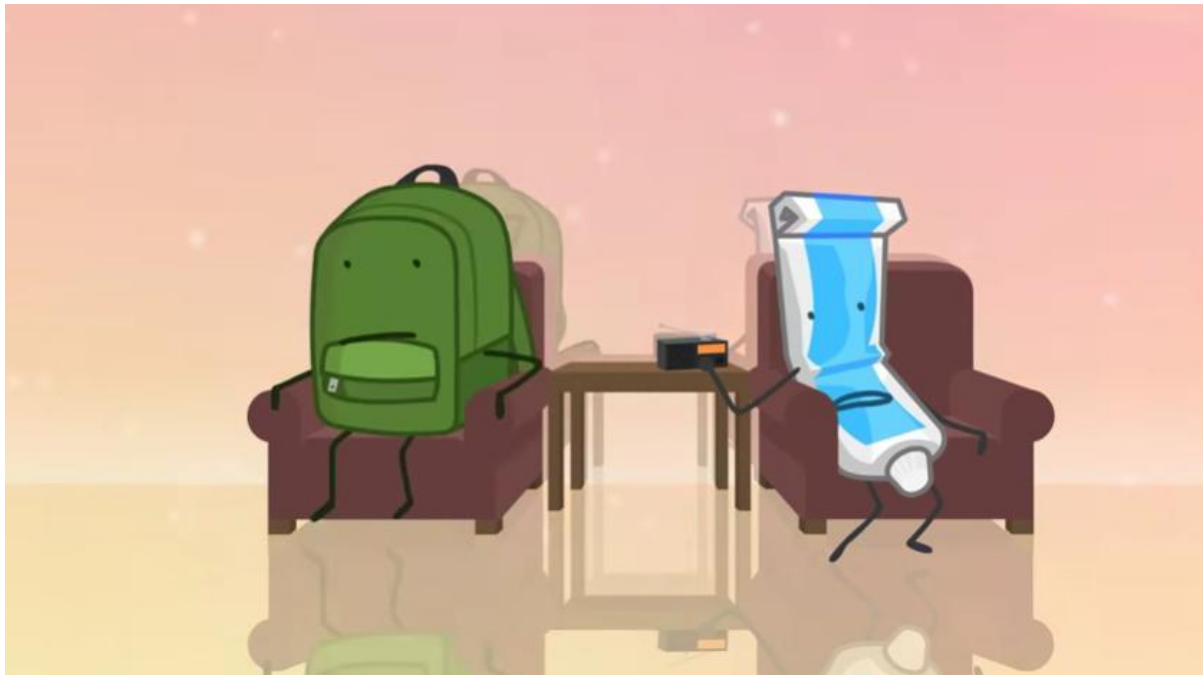

1 ep5 dad beat dad 9.6/10

The show still has many mysteries such as Alastor's plan and his ties to Lilith that I'm glad they didn't cram into the finale. Can't wait for season 2 to be released.

Overall, I would give this series an 8.5/10 score, definitely a great way to start 2024. Now we've just Gotta wait till the next episode of helluva boss named "full moon"

ONE is the one of the best object show and one of the best animated series on YouTube!

This article contains spoilers for ONE. This series is pretty much perfect!

Created by cheesyhfj, this series follows Liam (backpack) as he gets stuck in a place called the plain and is forced to compete for a prize by a disembodied voice called airy. Over two seasons the truth slowly reveals itself.

This series really needs to get some more attention, the voice acting, animation and especially the soundtrack are amazing (composed by cheesyhfj himself). There are a few little things that elevate certain parts of the series such as lines like “I’m dead to this world, soda bottle don’t you get it” and “it’s not the road anymore” as well as all the thumbnails being in black and white.

The finale is perfect because after a confrontation between airy and Liam, airy does the best he could to construct a cast for Liam’s leg but when he goes out to grab some weeds he accidentally slips and falls off the cliff, dying on Impact. Liam wakes up putting a tape into the music player, while the music plays, we see airy’s backstory intercut with Liam finding airy’s body. The final scene shows airy back in purgatory but him now seeing the plain and Liam trying to free the contestants. The series ends on the implication that he never will be able to.

Airy is also the perfect morally grey character because even after Liam literally tried to kill him, he still helped him.

This series should go down in the object show hall of fame because the only bad thing is the pacing being slightly inconsistent but overall, I'll give the show a perfect 10/10.

The dreadbear show review! I review my own series and rank all 40 episodes!

I love making this show! I've been doing it for over a year now!

Currently spanning over 4 seasons this series follows dreadbear, tech guy and sam as they get into many wacky antics. The episodes are split as so, Pilot with (obviously) 1 episode, Season 1 at 8 episodes, Season 2 at 12 episodes, Season 3 at 10 episodes And season 4 at 9 episodes. There is also the bonus spinoff dreadbear show tales but I'm not including it in this ranking.

This show is almost completely unscripted. i've improvised almost every charcter arc, joke and fight scenes. I do the entire series by myself, every process is done by me.
