Popcross studios top 10
characters, and more!

Popcross studios top ten best multiverse tales characters (in my opinion)!

The youtuber Popcross studios has introduced many characters into his series multiverse tales, but which one is the best?

In Popcross studios' series multiverse tales he has had many characters appear and be a part of this massive scale story. So which ones are the best of the best. Well, that's why I'm going to rank my top 10 favourite. But before we start...

Disclaimer: I am not including joke characters such as Shampoo McGregor.

Anyways...

10: Champagne McGregor, the ex-dinosaur geneticist.

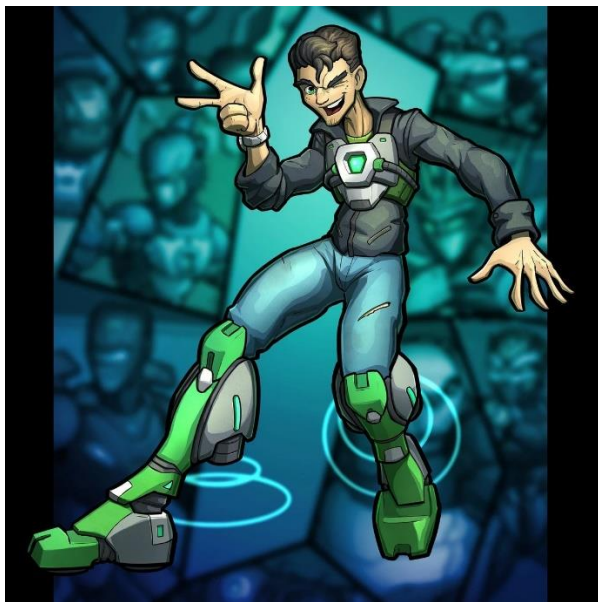

This character was originally introduced as the narrator for his dinosaur videos, but he was introduced into multiverse tales in “Champagne McGregor and the dinosaur rampage” where he quit his job at dinocross park. He then met Benny Sharp in “Benny v Champagne: Dawn of Friendship” and eventually he met Visalia kuvesnet and everyone else. He is a sarcastic, grumpy guy who cares deeply for his friends. He is also in a relationship with benny sharp.

Speaking of...

9: Benny Sharp, the mech armour maker.

Benny Sharp is an ever-optimistic wildcard who makes mech armours. Originally introduced as the narrator for his mech armour videos, Popcross studios has basically made him the made comic relief in the multiverse tales' series. He is in a relationship with Champagne McGregor.

He spent time escaping an infinite Ikea which was a superhero prison. Notably he has also tried drowning a gopher, which created the character of....

8: Archibald/Gooby/the gopher with a raygun

This gopher originally had a major drive for vengeance against Benny Sharp for drowning him twice and tossing him into another dimension. He tried getting his revenge by gaining the overseer (God) powers of a glitchy dimension and stealing a raygun. He then trapped Benny and Champagne in his dimension where he obviously lost and got sent to backcells prison. His drive for revenge was eventually extinguished by Benny Sharp apologising and the work of...

7: Sterling Engeal

He has the ability to create fire and a special kind of metal from his skin. Sterling tries his hardest to always remain optimistic but has slipped in the past, like when Dresden Oakland killed pretty much all the overseers. But he has helped many others to become the best versions of themselves for example...

6: the unkillable Kate

Kate was trapped in backcells prison for almost her entire life. Sterling, Jake, Ana and Gooby helped her and the rest of the sharp gang (all the main characters) escape from Dresden Oakland's grasp. She has also killed Santa and got a giant sword by killing 100s of dinosaur demons. But sadly, she wouldn't be like this if it wasn't for the manipulation of...

5: fear herself

The main antagonist of multiverse tales. She has manipulated everything in her favour and has awakened the seven archons (the creator gods who want to destroy the multiverse) in “nothing to fear but fear herself parts 1+2” she manipulated Dresden into trapping Kate in backcells and made him kill the many thousands of overseers. Her backstory and true power are shrouded in mystery. But she has certainly changed the destiny of some people. Especially...

4: Coshmara Noroi

Mara was given a demonic curse by Fear Herself. This curse made her lose all of her friends, but she made new ones with the sharp gang and has become one of their heavy hitters. She has been described to run and jump so fast she creates sonic booms. This means that she is a massive help whenever the gang needs to fight a huge target. She may not be as strong as Heath Hurricane Reynolds, but she definitely packs a punch. She has basically made the sharp tank (the main group's base) her home. But the safety of that home is in the hands of...

3: Astra

Astra is the overseer of Sterling's universe. She once tried to become a citizen of his world by masquerading as the daughter of the devil, deamos. This eventually failed and she spent time travelling through the multiverse until her mother forced her to back. It was then she decided to make things right and set off the chain of events that would eventually get the sharp gang together. Which means coincidentally Astra owes all of this to...

2: Tarsa

This evil woman set off the entire story. When she burnt the dimension of one specific man to ground. And that man was...

1: Dresden Oakland

This man is the broken hero of multiverse tales. His dimension was burnt to the ground by Tarsa, and he was manipulated into genocide by fear herself. He has the greatest story arc out of any character and that's why he's, my favourite.

All my hero academia seasons and movies ranked!

MHA IS SO COOL!!!!!!!!!!

With a 4th movie announced to be in development and the 7th season soon to be revealed I think it's time to rank the currently released 6 seasons and 3 movies of MHA. The ranking will be from 1-10. 1 being "terrible" and 10 being "unbeatable". One last thing, I heavily enjoy everything from the series regardless of quality, so I do still heavily enjoy even the season in last place.

So, to start the ranking, in last place is...

9: season 5

Rating: 4/10

Overall, the worst season of the show. Poor pacing and terrible deviations from the manga.

8: movie 3 heroes rising

Rating 5/10

I still don't know how to feel about this one. Its enjoyable but also is just, at points, straight up bs.

7: movie 1 two heroes

Rating 6/10

Flawed but enjoyable. The villain is honestly, very effective.

6: season 4

Rating 7/10

Flawed logistically but also very awesome and horrifying.

5: movie 2 world heroes' mission

Rating 8/10

The best of the movies. Thrilling! The fights were insanely cool!

4: season 1

Rating 8.2/10

The show wouldn't exist without this amazing introduction.

3: season 6

Rating 8.5/10

Literally the most disastrously impactful season of the show. I have only one gripe they should've killed grandtorino.

2: season 3

Rating 9/10

This season was so emotional. The action as always was the absolute coolest! All might's big fight against all for one will always be remembered. Muscular was funnily enough the perfect villain to show of the strength and development of deku throughout the series as well as this season introducing the other main members of the league of villains.

1: season 2

Rating 10/10

Literally perfection! The pacing, action, animation, emotions, characters, worldbuilding and everything else was on point! Todoroki had a perfect character arc; endeavour was incredibly well written. The sports festival was literal perfection! And following it up with the stain arc was genius, stain being one of if not the most threatening villain in the entire series. Iida had a great character arc that heavily effected the events of season 3 and beyond.

All of the shield hero's allies and powers explained (as of season 3)!

The shield hero has so many abilities and allies! Someone needs to keep track!

Before we start, I have to say that I won't go in depth on any of the following allies or include Ren (the sword hero), Motoyasu (the spear hero) and Itsuki (the bow hero). If I get enough requests for it, I may talk about specific characters in another issue but anyways now here's the list of...

ALLIES:

Raphtalia, Rishia Ivyred, Glass, L'Arc Berg Sickle, Kizuna Kazayama, Ethnobalt, Sadeena, S'yne Lokk, Fohl Fayon, Filo, Melty Q Melromarc, Keel, Raph-chan, Atla, Mirellia Q Melromarc, Erhard, Beloukas, Ost Horai (dead), Eclair Seaetto, Elrasla Ragnarok, Imiya Leuthurn Reethela Teleti Kuwariz, Queen's Shadow.

Now then why talk about his powers.

He is immune to alcohol and motion sickness. Animals feel calmer and become friendly around the shield hero. He cooks incredibly well. He's a great negotiator.

The first things he learned as the shield hero were potion and crystal crafting which he is very adapt in both.

His legendary shield grants him many abilities like a grappling hook, a ball of shields, a floating shield (can be used up to 6 times at once), a shield that bites enemies with snakes, a similar shield but with dogs, a forcefield, an attracting energy, a cannon shield (spirit tortoise shield), an intimidating shriek, a light barrier, copy the appearance and structure of other shields, chain creation, plant perfection, the ability to absorb an enemy's strength, the ability to empower an ally temporarily, a wrath series (flame manipulation, a giant iron maiden attack, a blood sacrifice to create massive attacks) and a few more non-descript abilities.

So yeah, Naofumi is a force to be reckoned with! He is so powerful and it's kind of crazy in comparison to the other heroes who are basically stick in comparison to the shield hero's sword.

Jjk cursed clash looks even more awesome! Confirmed release date!

Master a new domain. 2v2 battles. The cursed energy flows.

Recently a lot of news has been announced about the Jjk arena fighter, cursed clash, including, a ton of characters, the release date, dlc and game mechanics.

To start, the game has a confirmed release date of February 1st, 2024. This means we have just over 1 month till the game releases! And with the pre-order versions being up for purchase we have a confirmation of at least one dlc. Which is for the hidden inventory/premature death arc, this means that Toji Fushiguro will be playable!

The announced playable roster includes Yuji Itadori, Megumi Fushiguro, Nobara Kugisaki, Satoru Gojo, Ryomen Sukuna, Maki Zenin, Panda, Toge Inumaki, Aoi Todo, Mahito, Jogo, Hanami, Kento Nanami, Eso and Kechizu. Which means sadly Yuta will probably be a dlc character.

A few game mechanics have also been revealed. You can use basic attacks or use your cursed technique. Using your character's cursed technique increases the cursed energy gauge.

The cursed energy gauge grants different effects for every character, for instance Yuji will gain heightened damage after every point reached on the gauge. Were as Gojo gains complete immunity to damage temporarily for each point reached.

The cursed gauge when maxed out allows you to use a character's ultimate. Like Gojo's hollow purple or Yuji's black flash.

I am so hyped for this game!!! It is also confirmed to have a story mode recapping the first season and have a 2v2 player battle system. This game will be amazing! I hope that with dlc they add Choso and Geto/Kenjaku.

2024 is going to be crazy! So many things releasing next year!

We have a lot to be excited for next year

So many things have been announced to be releasing next year. 2024 is going to be wild. From sci fi to comedy, 2024 will have it all! Now to the list

- murder drones eps 7 and 8: Spring.
- hazbin hotel season 1: February.
- jjk cursed clash: February 1st.
- suicide squad: kill the justice league: January-February hopefully.

- kung fu panda 4: March 19th.
- Inside out 2: June 14th.
- Sonic 3: roughly December.
- Dandadan season 1: TBA.
- Oshi no ko season 2: TBA.
- Kaiju no. 8 season 1: April 2024.
- Dog man the scarlet shredder: March 19th.
- MHA volume 37: March 5th.
- MHA volume 38: June 4th.
- Helluva boss episode 8 full moon: TBA.

So, to conclude, 2024 will be an amazing year for pop culture as a whole. So, let's hope that not all of this stuff turns out to be a complete disaster.

Thanks for reading!
