Netflix original animation: the good, the bad and the absolutely terrible!

Netflix certainly has a... variety of animated original series!

Anyone who has ever been on Netflix knows that they have an expansive catalogue of animated media, and as of recent years has also amassed a significant number of original animated content exclusive to the platform. In this article, I will go over 5 of the more standout series (whether for the good or for the bad).

1: glitch techs (rating 9/10)

This series centres on teens Hector Nieves (five) and Miko Kubota (me-ko) in a city where a group of people is secretly dealing with glitches that cause video game characters to manifest into the real and thus create havoc. ## Explaining every single domain expansion in jujutsu kaisen (as of February 2024)!

Jujutsu kaisen has a bunch of cool powers!

In jujutsu kaisen, a few sorcerers have been shown to be capable of the pinnacle of jujutsu, a domain expansion. But how do each of these domain expansion work, well that's what I'm here to do. In this article I am going to explain every single (currently revealed) domain expansion in the series.

1: coffin of the iron mountain (user: Jogo)

It takes the appearance of a volcano and allows Jogo to manipulate greater masses of magma as well as the enemy being burnt by the high temperatures

2: unlimited void (user: Gojo)

It takes the appearance of outer space splattered with white holes. It sends tons of information into people's brains which immobilises them completely, this doesn't affect anyone Gojo is touching or Gojo himself.

3: malevolent shrine (user: Sukuna)

It takes the appearance of a shrine covered with skulls which turns the sky red. This allows Sukuna to use his cutting techniques at incredibly fast speeds. This domain doesn't require a barrier and as such can be as large as 200 metres in all directions. The shrine doesn't change size.

4: self-embodiment of perfection (user: Mahito)

Takes the appearance of a dome covered in hands wrapping around each other and a rocky purple floor. This allows mahito to activate his idle transfiguration on people within the domain without touching them.

5: chimera shadow garden (user: Megumi)

Takes the appearance of a swamp made of black ooze. This allows Megumi to summon and dispel an infinite amount of his Shinigami (excluding mahoraga) and teleport through the ooze.

6: idle death gamble (user: Hakari)

Takes the appearance of a train station based of a romance themed pachinko machine.

Grants Hakari different rewards based entirely on luck. If he hits the jackpot, music starts playing and he becomes immortal for 5 minutes , his cursed energy skyrocketing.

7: deadly sentencing (user: Higuruma)

Takes the appearance of a court room surrounded by gold and giant guillotines. This domain forces a vow of non-violence upon people within it. Within this domain a quick court case, where the enemy is put on trial for a crime they committed in the past, plays out and afterwards the Shinigami judgeman decides a verdict and deactivates the domain. If the verdict is Guilty (which it most likely is, because judgeman provides Higuruma with the exact evidence to prove the enemy guilty.) judgeman will confiscate the enemy's cursed technique (if they are holding a cursed tool that gets confiscated instead) for a limited time as well as buffing Higuruma. In this period the enemy can call for a retrial, where they are put on trial for a more severe crime, unless they have never committed a crime more severe than the first trial. If in either trials the verdict is death, then once the domain dissipates Higuruma is given the executioner's sword which can kill anyone it slices.

8: horizon of the captivating skhanda (user: Dagon)

Takes the appearance of an island surrounded by an ocean. This allows Dagon to summon fishes to attack enemies anywhere within the domain, these fishes don't exist until they either hit or get close to the enemy. As well Dagon can move around faster

9: smallpox deity's domain (user: smallpox deity)

Takes the appearance of a graveyard in the middle of the forest. In this domain, the smallpox deity traps an enemy in a coffin then slams them into the ground using a rock and counting to three. After it's finished counting if the enemy hasn't escaped then they contract smallpox and die.

10: time cell moon palace (user: Naoya zenin)

Takes the appearance of a rocky pathway over a black void with a giant eye positioned at the end. In this domain people must move at 24 frames per second or have every cell in their body attacked by animation frames.

11: womb profusion (user: kenjaku)

Takes the appearance of a grotesque totem surrounded by a dojo floor. Anyone who gets hit by the attack of this domain takes a large amount of damage (nothing else is really known about this domain).

12: threefold affliction (user: Yorozu)

Takes the appearance of mushroom like appendages floating in an empty space. This domain applies to all of Yorozu's constructed items (particularly true sphere) allowing her to destroy anyone within her domain if she wills it.

13: authentic mutual love (user: Yuta)

This domain blackens the sky and litters the ground with katanas and cross shaped wreckage. This domain gives Yuta unrestricted access to all of his copied cursed techniques (which he can make any of them a sure-hit attack) and can apply his full power into the swords since he has an almost infinite supply.

And that's it. There are also a few people we know have a domain expansion but since they have never use them they are not worth mentioning.

My pitch for a marvel vs dc fighting game!

This fighting game will probably never happen but hey, a man can dream!

Marvel and DC are both big companies in the superhero comics business (they basically built the craft) and each of them has dipped their toes into the fighting game genre, so wouldn't it be awesome if they made a crossover game. I think so! In this article I will go over my pitch for a MARVEL VS DC fighting game.

First things first, gameplay, I think it would work if the game played like a mixture marvel vs capcom and injustice. But there are many fighting styles that would fit with these characters.

Secondly, visuals, I would say that a visual style like injustice 2 would be great.

Thirdly, modes, honestly all they would probably need is a single player campaign, arcade mode, free battle/local multiplayer and online (with custom matches on launch).

And fourthly (most importantly) the roster! I think It would be best for both companies to have 22 characters each to represent them for a total of 44 characters.

Marvel should have:

1. Iron man
2. Captain America
3. Hulk
4. Spiderman

5. Thor
6. Loki
7. Green goblin
8. Thanos
9. Wolverine
10. Doctor strange
11. Scarlett witch
12. Daredevil
13. Black panther
14. Ant man
15. Doctor doom
16. Magneto
17. Ultron
18. Jean grey/the phoenix
19. Venom
20. Kang the conqueror
21. Hela
22. Peter quill/starlord

Dc should have:

1. Batman
2. Wonder woman

3. Superman
4. Green lantern
5. Aquaman
6. The flash
7. Joker
8. Martian manhunter
9. Lex Luthor
10. Darkseid
11. Doctor fate
12. Robin
13. Black Adam
14. General Zod
15. Sinestro
16. Blue beetle
17. Gorilla grodd
18. Brainiac
19. Deathstroke
20. Catwoman
21. Zatanna
22. The spectre

Sonic the hedgehog 3, most recent news!!!

I literally can't wait for this film

We have recently got some big news for this movie and when I say big, I mean BIG!

Firstly, we have a confirmed release date:
December 20th this year!

Secondly, the logo has been revealed

This logo looks really cool! It is also a reference to sonic adventure 2's logo (shadow's first ever appearance)

Thirdly and this is some really big news:

Jim Carrey is reprising his role as Dr robotnik/egg man!

This news is made even bigger by the fact that he said he would only return if the script was actually good, so that is incredibly good news. And that's all the big news we've currently been given.

Movies and tv series I think more people should watch!

More people should watch these things!

In this article I will explain 3 movies and 3 series I think more people should watch and talk about. I won't go over the series that I've already mentioned in article one, but more people should definitely watch glitch techs and the hollow, I also won't talk about any indie Animated web series, for example murder drones, BFB or helluva boss. I will be talking about one movie that released on YouTube last year, and that movie is...

Movie 1: EMESIS BLUE (overall rating: 9.6/10)

When an executive of the BLU Corporation mysteriously vanishes in Mortem, New Mexico, a private detective, and washed-up war veteran team up to find him, yet the man they hunt is more dangerous than they can possibly imagine.

Movie 2: NIGHTBOOKS (overall rating: 8.9/10)

After his new principal Dwight destroys his sketchbook, Rafe Khatchadorian and his best friend Leo decide to metaphorically destroy Dwight's book by breaking every rule in the school's Code of Conduct.

Series 1: TENKAI KNIGHTS (overall rating 8/10)

Four teenagers use a machine to teleport to another universe named Korton where they become the legendary Tenkai Knights. They battle villains, dragons, and monsters with weapons like swords, bows and arrows, and num-chuks.

Series 2: LITTLE WITCH ACADEMIA (overall rating 9/10)

Series 3: I'VE BEEN KILLING SLIMES FOR 300 YEARS AND MAXED OUT MY LIFE (overall rating 7.8/10)
